COUNTY APPLES GIVEN AWARDS

Many Adams County Growers Receive Awards at State Show. Chester J. Tyson Elected President of Horticultural Association.

With a long list of awards won by Adams County orchardists and Chester J. Tyson, of Flora Dale, chosen as president of the State Horticultural Association, this county is figuring prominently in the convention of that organization now in session in York. Mr. Tyson succeeds William T. Creasy as president. He is known throughout the State by his energetic work as secretary of the association. Included in the awards won by the local fruit growers are the following:

Class 1—For best barrel of apples, any variety. Stayman Winesap, first, H. M. Keller, Gettysburg; York Imperial, first, G. P. Myers, Aspers.

Class 3—For best collection of five barrels of apples, any one commercial variety. Stayman Winesap, first, H. M. Keller, Gettysburg.

Class 4—For the best exhibit of one box. Grimes Golden, first, C. J. Tyson, Flora Dale; Stayman Winesap, first, C. J. Tyson; Summer Rambo, first, C. J. Tyson; York Imperial, first, C. J. Tyson.

Class 6—For the best exhibit of three boxes of apples, of any three varieties. Grimes Golden, York Imperial and York Stripe, C. J. Tyson.

Class 7—For the best five boxes of apples, any one variety. Ben Davis, first, C. J. Tyson.

Class 8—For the best plate of five specimens of any variety mentioned in class 4, premium for each section. Arkansas, first, E. P. Garretson, Bigler; Baldwin, second, Katherine Large, Orrtanna; Fameuse, first, Katherine Large; Grimes Golden, first, Katherine Large; Ben Davis, first, G. P. Myers, Aspers; second, Katherine Large; Jonathan, second, C. A. Wolf, Aspers; Smokehouse, first, C. J. Tyson; Stayman Winesap, first, E. P. Garretson, Bigler; second, C. J. Tyson; Summer Rambo, first, C. J. Tyson; second, Katherine Large; Wagner, first, C. J. Tyson; York Imperial, first, Katherine Large; second, C. J. Tyson; York Stripe, first, H. M. Keller, Gettysburg.

Class 9—For the best three plates of apples any three varieties. Stayman Winesap, York Stripe and Grimes Golden, first, C. J. Tyson; Yellow Bellflower, Fameuse and York Imperial, second, Katherine Large.

Class 10—For the best collection five plates of any one variety. York Imperial, second, Boyer Brothers, Arendtsville.

Class 11—For the largest number of named varieties, five specimens of each variety. Baldwin, York Imperial, Baltzley, Paradise, Smokehouse, Rome Beauty, Cheese, Winesap, Winter Rambo, Arkansas, Red Doctor, Grimes Golden, Hubbardston, Fall Pippin, York Stripe, Stark, Romanite, Summer Rambo, first, Eli P. Garretson; York Stripe, Winesap, Yellow Newton, Smith Cider, Saylor, York Imperial, Dominie, Strintown Pippin, Ben Davis, Red Pearman, Golden Pippin, Winter Rambo, Sawyer, Jonathan, Stark, Rome Beauty and Paradise, second, C. H. Snyder, Orrtanna.

Class 13—For the best single plate of pears any variety. Clarigan, first, Katherine Large.

In the county association exhibit the Perry County Fruit Growers' association was awarded a certificate of merit for making the most creditable exhibit, size, appearance and quality considered. Adams county was a close second in this class.

On Wednesday C. A. Griest, of Guernsey, talked to the convention on "Planting and Care of a Young Peach Orchard". Location, he said, is the first consideration, and as a general proposition is required to establish good water and air drainage. He said that any soil that will grow chestnuts should produce peaches. Planting in straight rows on the square plan was advocated because it permits ready cultivation in four different ways. There is no need to prune roots in planting, he said, except to remove broken, damaged, or exceptionally long ones. The hole should be somewhat wider and deeper than necessary to snugly fit the roots.

EDDIE PLANK'S TEAM VICTORS

Gettysburg Bowlers Defeat Chambersburg with Mike Mowery, of Pittsburgh Pirates' Fame, at their Head. Close and Exciting.

Eddie Plank took his bowling quintet to Chambersburg on Wednesday night and, after five exciting games, returned home victorious by a margin of thirty nine pins. Pitted against our own famous twirler was Mike Mowery of the Pittsburgh Nationals and the Casino Alleys, where the games were rolled, were crowded to capacity by enthusiasts.

The rooting would have done credit to a league base ball game and excitement was intense throughout. Chambersburg took the first game by a margin of 43. Gettysburg cut it down to 24 in the second and at the end of the third game Eddie Plank and his friends were ahead by 10 pins. Five games were to be played and the excitement became intense.

In the fourth game the Gettysburgians literally ran away with things. Eddie Plank and Ex-Burgess Holtzworth rolled 101 each; John Brehm scored his highest for the evening, 108, Ira Plank tallied 116, and Bert Hummer, scoring one strike and spare after another, accumulated 141 pins. Against Gettysburg's 567 Chambersburg could score only 460.

And then came the fifth. Mowery started off with 114, and Kottcamp tallied 137. Chambersburg's rooters went wild but their hopes dropped a little when Hoover and Heintzelman pulled in only 89 and 94. Forman, formerly Gettysburg's borough engineer, aroused them again but 135 was the best he could do. Gettysburg was 78 shy of the Franklin County bowlers on this last game but still had thirty nine pins to the good and returned home with a well earned victory. The score:

PAPERS RECOVERED

Were in Box Stolen from Frock Store, Near McSherrytown.

The tin box containing over fifty dollars in cash and a number of valuable papers, which was stolen from the home of William Frock, at the edge of McSherrytown, about two weeks ago, was evidently opened and destroyed in a field near of Blue Gables, as several of the papers were found at that place. An old half dollar identified by the date 1820 was also picked up under a tree near this spot, the coin most likely being folded in the papers and escaped the notice of the thief.

The papers were accidentally found by some children while at play near Blue Gables and were taken home to their parents. The mother without thinking of their possible value burned the papers, but later she thought of the theft which had been committed at the Frock store, near her home, and another search was made revealing other papers which were identified by Mr. Frock.

Later William Kinsell, a letter-carrier, picked up an old coin at that vicinity and knowing of the robbery, asked Mr. Frock the date of the half dollar which was missing and it turned out to be the stolen money.

No trace of the box has been found and of course the $50 is in possession of the thief.

DILLER-NEELY

Mr. Diller and Miss Neely, Both of York Springs.

Orpheus Diller and Miss Pluvia Neely, both well-known residents of York Springs, were united in marriage Tuesday at Hunterstown, by Rev. Mr. Baker, of the Presbyterian church, pastor of the bride.

Mr. Diller is a merchant at York Springs, while Mrs. Diller has been engaged in the millinery business for some years.

They have gone to Baltimore, Washington and Harrisburg, and upon their return will reside in York Springs.

HEALTH OF THE TOWN IS GOOD

Almost Twice as Many Births as Deaths in Gettysburg during the Past Year. Over Half the Deaths after Fifty Years.

The annual report of the Board of Health presented to the Town Council shows Gettysburg a highly satisfactory place in which to live. During the past year there were but fifty five deaths in the town while ninety eight births were reported. Of the fifty five deaths, thirty three, or three fifths, were persons who had passed the age of fifty.

The total number of deaths actually reported was seventy one but this figure includes the deaths of thirteen non-residents and three still births, a total of sixteen which are not chargeable to the borough. Of the thirteen non-residents, nine died at the time of the battle anniversary.

The list of births includes ninety six white children and two colored; the deaths sixty seven white and four colored. January had the highest number of deaths, eleven; and August the largest number of births, fourteen.

The causes of death show some interesting features. There were thirteen deaths from apoplexy, two from tubercular meningitis, two from cancer, four from pulmonary tuberculosis. There was one death out of the eleven cases of diphtheria and one death in a total of 255 cases of measles. Other deaths were as follows: blood and circulatory system diseases, 8; diseases of the urinary organs, 6; found dead, 2; alcoholism, 1; still births, 3; diseases of children, 5; diseases of the digestive system, 2; diseases of the respiratory system other than tuberculosis, 9; diabetes, 1; accidental poisoning, 1; suicide 1.

During the year the following cases of infectious diseases were reported, measles 255, diphtheria 11, whooping cough 7, typhoid fever 4, erysipelas 4, chicken pox 2. Owing to these cases and the work incident to the fiftieth anniversary celebration the board had an unusual amount to do during the year covered in the report. The matter of the handling of the diphtheria outbreaks is dwelt upon at some length, the report saying:

"Diphtheria was slightly more than usually prevalent—the eleven cases appearing in four outbreaks—January, July, October, and December, sufficiently separated that one cannot be directly charged to the others. Two were confined to the initial case, and the individual cases of the other two were so nearly simultaneous, and widely separated as to locality as to make it improbable that any one is traceable to another.

"It is seldom possible, even with unlimited time, money and opportunity, to determine the source of the infection from which the disease appears apparently de novo—but it is a matter of great gratification that each outbreak has been limited to the initial cases. This we believe is the result of observance of quarantine regulations, willingly accorded by most people, and by others, by reason of the penalty which the policy of the Board, consistently adhered to for some years past, has made certain to follow disregard thereof.

"During the year we successfully conducted one prosecution for violation of the Quarantine Regulations ordained at the beginning of the year, which have worked out very satisfactorily, so far, with the exception of one point.

"The Board, and especially its executive officer, were harshly criticised, recently, by various persons, (some, at least of whom, could be reasonably expected to be sufficiently fair-minded to ascertain the facts in the case before passing sentence) for failure to supply the necessities of life to certain families quarantined for diphtheria.

"The Quarantine Regulations of the Board (Ordinance of Jan. 9, '13) empower the Board, when certain conditions have been fulfilled, to furnish such necessities. Two families were reported to the Board as being unable to secure the necessities of life. An officer of the Board immediately visited both places.

"At the one place, he was informed that they were not in need of assistance—the report, evidently being gratuitous, on the part of the informant. At the other, the fact was developed that the head of the household did not want to qualify for the wage earners permit, but wanted to stay at home.

"In the belief that the intent of the

HAD NOT WALKED FOR MANY YEARS

Mrs. Mary Peters Dies in Buchanan Valley after Seven Years' Illness with Rheumatism. Had not Walked during Entire Time.

Mrs. Mary A. Peters, widow of Jacob Peters, after many years of suffering from rheumatism died on Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock at her home in Buchanan Valley aged 72 years, 11 months and 2 days.

She had not walked for seven years, but sat in a chair by her bedside all these years during the day. She bore her suffering with great patience and fortitude, and enjoyed life.

She leaves two children, John, at home, and Mrs. Edward Shultz, of the Valley; four brothers, Lewis J. Weaver, of Littlestown; John Weaver, of Bonneauville; Pius Weaver, of Brush-town; and Frank Weaver, of McSherrytown. She also leaves four sisters, Mrs. Vincent Storm, of York; Mrs. Susan Hoff, of Littlestown; Mrs. George Wurtz, of Littlestown; Miss Emma Weaver, of Hanover.

Her remains will be interred in St Ignatius Cemetery on Saturday morning.

HAS NOT SIGNED

Eddie Plank One of Three Athletic Players Unsigned.

Connie Mack, manager of the world's champion Athletics, announced that he had signed twenty-seven of his players for the season of 1914. Every one of his regulars, except John Coombs and Eddie Plank, pitchers, and Ira Thomas, the catcher, are in line.

The Philadelphia Press says: "Eddie Plank, the grand old man of baseball, is not among those who have signified their willingness to again don the White Elephants' uniform, but he will probably be in line when the season of 1914 gets under way."

"Last year Plank did not sign a contract until the season had almost started. At that time the wonderful southpaw pitcher announced that he was going to retire after a long and meritorious career in baseball, but Manager Mack succeeded in getting the Gettysburg graduate to sign. It will probably be the same this year. Plank is anxious to retire, and if he does he will not be in want. He is worth more than $50,000 and owns considerable farm land up-State."

ANNUAL BANQUET

FRESH VIOLETS

Sends Violets and Mistletoe from Southern State.

We are indebted to Mr. Emanuel Smith, of Carlisle street, for a beautiful bouquet of fresh violets and mistletoe which he sends from Columbia, South Carolina. He is spending several weeks in the South visiting his children and writes interestingly of his experience there. Mr. Smith wishes to be remembered to all his Gettysburg friends.

BASKET BALL

Gettysburg and Catholic High School Teams Play.

The Gettysburg High School won its last game of basket ball from the Catholic High School Wednesday evening by a score of 16 to 10. The game was played in Xavier Hall and was witnessed by a small number of rooters.

Ordinance was not to provide support for those who voluntarily elected to make themselves a public burden by failing to avail themselves of the means provided to allow them to go to work, the assistance was refused, and we believe properly so."

$15,000,000 FOR CANCER HE SAYS

Witness at Hearing Tells of Big Radium Offer.

TO TREAT 200,000 PERSONS

Says He Spent $650,000 to Produce Two Grams, But Will Soon Be Producing a Gram Per Month.

Washington, Jan. 22.—A philanthropist, whose name is withheld, is contemplating the erection at a cost of about $15,000,000 of twenty radium institutes in the United States, equipping each of them with five grams of radium and throwing them open for the treatment of 200,000 cancer victims in the United States.

This assertion was made by Joseph M. Flannery, of Pittsburgh, Pa., president of the Standard Chemical company, manufacturers of radium, who appeared before the house committee on mines and mining in opposition to Secretary of the Interior Lane's proposition to withdraw from public entire the radium bearing lands in the west.

"I am not at liberty to disclose the man's name," said Mr. Flannery, "but he has the plan under consideration.
It would be a great boon to humanity.
Other men have done great things for humanity. Here is another one willing to do it."

Flannery, when pressed by the committee to say what it would cost the government to buy enough radium to treat all the cancer patients in the country, said:

"I will guarantee, subject to the approval of my board of directors, to sell 200 grams of radium to the government within the next five years, beginning Jan. 1 next, at $80,000 a gram. The market price now is $120,- 000. And it might be possible to make it cheaper than $80,000 a gram."

Flannery intimated under questioning by committee members that the man he was speaking of was neither John D. Rockefeller nor Andrew Carnegie.

Flannery said that his company had spent in three years $650,000 to produce two grams of radium. The effort had been inspired by the fact that a close relative was afflicted with cancer, he said. The grams cost $480,000 to produce, he estimated, and brought $240,000.

"There is enough radium ore in Colorado to supply the world five times over," said Flannery. "Only 200 grams are needed for the whole of the United States."

Flannery declared that his experiments showed that radium was twenty-five times more valuable for other uses than for cancer treatment. "We have 100 physicians working with it on other diseases with as great results," he added.

Representative Burns asked Flannery what he would charge the government for the process he has evolved for treating radium ores.

"There is a possibility of buying anything from any man," said Flannery,
"but we don't want the government to destroy our business. We were the pioneers and the government has no right to come in and run us out."

Vigorous opposition to the proposal to withdraw radium lands from entry was made by Thomas Henahan, state mine commissioner of Colorado, who declared such action would ruin the radium mining industry.

"All we want is to be let alone," he declared. "We are getting out the radium. If you tie up these lands, prospectors will not go into them. As it is ninety-nine out of one hundred prospectors fail. What they need is encouragement, not discouragement, if this radium is to be mined."

TO FEED 500 OUTCASTS

Helen Gould-Shepard to Celebrate First Wedding Anniversary.

New York, Jan. 22.—To celebrate her first wedding anniversary, Mrs.
Finley J. Shepard, who was Miss Helen Miller Gould, will provide dinners for 500 Bowery outcasts tonight and 200 beds for the homeless.

The dinners will be served at the Hadley Rescue Hall, where Mrs. Shepard entertained 1000 at dinner on the day of her marriage. The repast will precede the nightly gospel meeting, and will comprise soups, roasts and all the accessories of an appetizing and substantial feast.

The 200 extra beds for the homeless will be furnished in addition to the forty that nightly shelter the city's wanderers at Hadley Rescue Hall, in order to care for many who will partake of the dinner.

KAISERIN REPORTED VERY ILL

Court Curtailed Owing to Weakness of the Empress.

London, Jan. 22.—The Berlin correspondent of the Daily Mail says that Tuesday night's court was curtailed almost one-half on account of the kaiserin's health, which is unsatisfactory.

Her doctors have told her that she must avoid over-exertion. It is said that she is suffering from heart trouble, which makes it necessary that she abstain from all unnecessary movements of the body and limbs.

Two English physicians were recently called in to consult with the German doctors in regard to this trouble.

MRS. ROBERT GOELET SUES FOR A DIVORCE

Brings Action in Rhode Island Courts, Alleging Cruelty.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Robert Goelet filed suit for divorce against her husband, Robert Goelet, whose wealth is estimated at many millions.

The suit was filed for Mrs. Goelet by Samuel Untermyer, her attorney.
Extreme cruelty is given as the ground upon which the divorce is sought.

For six months society has been expecting news of a direct break, but effort after effort was made to patch up the troubles of the young couple, and for a time it was believed that an open breach would be avoided.

Mrs. Goelet was Miss Whelen, of Philadelphia. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whelen, wealthy and prominent members of society in Philadelphia. Mr. Whelen is now dead, and Mrs. Whelen has remarried, being now Mrs. C. Hartman Kuhn.

The Goelets were married on June 14, 1904, at the Church of St. Mary, at Wayne, a fashionable suburb of Philadelphia, and the wedding was an event of note.

The bridesmaids were Miss Alice Roosevelt, Miss Francis Griscom, Miss Arlene Jordan, Miss Esther White, Miss Pauline Biddle, Miss Edith Bruen, Miss Marion Haven and Miss Nora Iselin. Ogden Mills, of New York, was the bridegroom's best man.

DR. ULSH KILLED

Authority on Smallpox Loses Life in Automobile Accident.

Lewistown, Pa., Jan. 22.—Losing control of a big touring car in which they were riding, Dr. William Ulsh and Brewster Schoch, of Selts Grove were thrown over an embankment near Middleburg and were injured fatally.

Dr. Ulsh suffered a fractured skull and lived only an hour after the accident. Schoch was taken to a hospital, and is not expected to recover. Dr.
Ulsh was a surgeon in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad company.

An icy and slippery roadway caused the automobile to skid over the embankment. The machine turned over, and pinned the doctor underneath.

Dr. Ulsh was forty-five years old and leaves a widow. He was a graduate of Annapolis and handled small-pox epidemics in the Philippines after the Spanish-American war.

Contractor Ends Life.

Riverside, N. J., Jan. 22.—George Arndt, forty years old, a prominent Riverside contractor, committed suicide by hanging himself to the rafters of a carpenter shop in the rear of his home. Members of the family who started a search for him after he had failed to appear for dinner, discovered his body.

Five of Family Die in Fire.

Alpena, Mich., Jan. 22.—Five persons were burned to death here in a fire which destroyed the residence of Samuel Bloise. The victims were Mrs.
Bloise, three children and her brother-in-law. Mr. Bloise, a fourteen-year-old son and an infant escaped.

MISS BRADLEY TAKEN HOME

Father and Two Detectives Use Force.

HER CLOTHES ARE HIDDEN

Kicking and Screaming, She Was Dragged into Home, Shouting Love For Foster.

Philadelphia, Jan. 22.—After a hasty trip by automobile from the Windsor hotel, in which she was staying in this city with her father, Miss Delilah Bradley, the eighteen-year-old girl, who eloped with Joel M. Foster, her forty-five-year-old admirer, was returned to her home in Pemberton, N. J.

When the entrance to her home was reached, the girl, who had rebelled against the return throughout the trip from Philadelphia, screamed and refused to enter. Her father picked her up in his arms and, with the assistance of two detectives, carried her, kicking and screaming, into the house.

The parents took the girl's clothes away from her, gave her a kimono, a night dress and a pair of bedroom slippers and locked her in her room.

They took this action after she had threatened to jump out of the window and run away.

Foster arrived in Philadelphia ten minutes after the girl had been whisked away in an automobile by her parents, her aunt and two private detectives.

He called up the hotel and was surprised to learn that the girl had once more disappeared. He asked for information and was told that none could be given—that Delilah Bradley had been taken to a sanatorium. With an exclamation, he hung up the telephone receiver and shortly afterwards took a train to New York.

Foster has an appointment to meet a lawyer named Well, of Bordentown, N. J., at the Hotel McAlpin.

On the way to Pemberton the automobile in which the girl was being rushed away broke down and the reporters' car caught up with it.

When the party arrived at the family home the reporters followed the family inside, and Delilah, hysterical and shaken with rage at what she called her abduction, screamed out several times:

"I love Mr. Foster as much as ever and I want the world to know it." Then she shouted charges of persecution by her family. "They dragged me from him by force in Mobile," she exclaimed. "My family kept me confined in the Philadelphia hotel against my will. They dragged me down here and three private detectives took me out of the automobile and dragged me into the house. But I love Mr. Foster as much as ever. Nothing can make me change my mind. I intend to go back to him, no matter what happens."

While the girl was being taken into her father's home she struggled with the detectives and cried: "I want to go back to Mr. Foster."

MINING UNDER STREETS

Coal Companies Say Scranton Cannot Stop Them.

Scranton, Pa., Jan. 22.—In filing answer to the petition of the city of Scranton to restrain them from mining coal under certain streets in the Green Ridge section, the Scranton and Elk Hill coal companies admitted that they are mining under the streets, but assert they cannot be stopped because the old deeds permit it.

The coal companies' attorneys attacked the Davis mine cave law, enacted as a solution to the mine cave problem. They allege the law is unconstitutional because it is local legislation.

A TRIPLE MURDER

Man, Sick, Kills Wife, Two Daughters and Himself.

New York, Jan. 22.—Driven insane by the fear that he was dying of consumption, Joseph Sterheim, a government employe, shot and killed his wife, two daughters and himself in their apartments in the Bronx.

Sterheim, who had been an interpreter at Ellis Island for several years, shot the two girls, thirteen and seventeen years old, and their mother while they were sleeping, and then killed himself beside the latter's bed.

Four Killed at Ottawa Fair.

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—At least four persons were killed at the Howick pavilion, where Ottawa's winter fair is being held, when a boiler exploded in the basement. The pavilion was completely wrecked. Dozens of persons were injured and many valuable horses and cattle were killed or so badly hurt that it was necessary to shoot them.

Engine Buies Human Snowball.
Peabody, Mass., Jan. 22.—Alexander McGregor, an elderly man, was rolled through wet snow in front of a locomotive for 150 feet, and when assistance reached him he was in the center of a snowball six feet in diameter. He will probably die.

OUTLAW FARMER GIVES HIMSELF UP

Edward Beardsley Defied the Sheriff For a Week.

Mayville, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Edward Beardsley, the Chautauque county outlaw farmer, who has for over a week defied the efforts of Sheriff Gust Anderson and a posse to arrest him, gave himself up to C. D. Backus, a local man, and was locked up in the jail here.

Backus, who was appointed a deputy sheriff by Sheriff Anderson, effected the "capture" alone and in keeping with a plan agreed upon between him and Beardsley.

The outlaw was taken to the hotel where breakfast was served. He then went to a barber shop, after which he walked to the sheriff's office and formally gave himself into the custody of the law.

He was served with a warrant tha charged him with assault in the first degree in having shot G. W. Putnam, overseer of the poor of Chautauque county, with intent to kill. Locked in his cell, no one was allowed to see him.

Beardsley's "capture" came afte eight days of open defiance of the law and his effective defense of "For Beardsley," as his farm house stronghold became known, divided into a burlesque with the outlaw in the principal role.

He would allow anyone to see an-talk with him except the sheriff, and he turned his notoriety into money by the sale of autograph postal cards posing as photographers and movipicture men. He boasted that Sheri-Anderson would never "take" him.

A week ago Tuesday Beardsley sho Putnam as the latter was about to take the outlaw's nine children to a county institution. He barricaded the windows and doors of his farm house and kept the sheriff and his posse o-twenty-five men at bay by threateninto use the children as a shield again-their bullets.

Sioux City, Ia., Jan. 22.—Feder-Judge Willard filed a decision holdin-held the law for a two-cent rate unconstitutional, in that it would be confes-sory.

Landlords Too Greedy.

Attempts to fix by statute the wages of agricultural laborers in England were largely responsible for the great revolt of 1831, or "Wat Tyler's rebellion." It represented the despairing effort of landowners to get back to the level of wages before the black death came to make labor dear. But the lord of the manor overshot the mark. He wanted the day wage kept down to four pence to six pence a day.
Had he put six pence to eight pence in the schedule there might have been no rebellion.

Africans Eager for Education.

The administrator of northern Rhodesia has undertaken a three-months' tour of the northeastern territory, and covered no less than 1,200 miles on a bicycle. He met every chief in the district, held large palayers at all the places he visited. He was greatly struck by the fact that most of the chiefs even in the wilder regions, made eager inquiries for education. They asked that the government would send them teachers so that they might read and write.

Invaluable Tact.

Tact, a little word of only four letters, and yet how mighty in the world of business—and in every other realm of human activity as well! A tactless man is a veritable bull in a china shop—more effective in his innocent wrackage of your interests than a round dozen pronounced enemies.
Heaven help the merchant who has these destroyers standing between him and his customers.

Medical Advertising Crying For Help

Lots of It in Gettysburg But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys often cry for help. Not another organ in the whole body more delicately constructed; Not one more important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood. Backache is one of the frequent indications of kidney trouble. It is often the kidneys' cry for help. Heed it.

Read what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for overworked kidneys. Read what Doan's have done for Gettysburg people.

C. G. Shank, Biglerville, Pa., says: "We have used Doan's Kidney Pills and are well satisfied with the results. One of the family complained of kidney trouble and got no benefit until she used Doan's Kidney Pills, which she saw recommended in the paper. This remedy strengthened the kidneys and caused the pains and aches to disappear."

Medical Advertising Big Surprise to Many in Gettysburg

Local people are surprised at the QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ka, the German remedy, which became famous by curing appendicitis. H. C. Landau, states that this simple remedy draws off such a surprising amount of old foul matter from the body that A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY.

THE PLAIN FROCK OF VELVETEEN IS OFTEN RELIEVED WITH A TOUCH OF BROCADE

Wide waists, shoulders and hips continue modish. The drop-shoulder, the girde and the peg-top skirt are the means employed to bring about this effect, with often a rever to add a bit of extra breadth. This figure is far more graceful than the pinched waists and wide foot-lines of some seasons ago. Velour de laine, old blue, is used for the first costume illustrated here ($6.54). The sash, cuffs, collar and revers are of a pastel tinted brocade silk in which there are touches of old rose and gold. The vest that peeps forth is of a softly tucked cream colored batiste. The wide shoulders and revers add to its effectiveness.

This design may be copied in size 36 with 4 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. Black velveteen is here touched to brightness by the bandings of brocade showing several rich shades. This frock gains distinction through simplicity. It closes straight down the back and has an inset yoke of the sheerest net. A wide girde of black grosgrain ribbon passes through slashes on the gown and adds a smart touch. This frock may be made in size 36 with 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch material, with 1 1/2 yards of brocade for trimming. No. 8054—sizes 34 to 42. No. 8045—sizes 34 to 42. Each pattern 15c.

To obtain either pattern illustrated fill out this coupon and enclose 15 cents in stamps or coin. Be sure to state number of pattern and size, measuring over the fullest part of the bust. Address Pattern Department, care of this paper.

CROPS DURING 1913.

Report of Secretary of Agriculture Shows That They Have Fallen Off.

Very brief space is allotted this year to a discussion of the crops in the United States in the report of the secretary of agriculture. Special emphasis is laid on the fact that the figures quoted are estimates, and it is pointed out that this fact should be constantly kept in mind. From the estimates at hand it appears that the production of crops in 1913 was materially below the average, the yield per acre of all crops combined being smaller than in any year in the past decade with the exception of 1911. The corn crop, the most valuable product of this country, according to the estimates, fell below 2,500,000,000 bushels, which is smaller than any crop since 1903. Wheat production, with an estimated total of 753,000,000 bushels, is the largest ever recorded in this country. This crop was matured before the drought became effective. Brief mention is made as to crop conditions throughout the world. From the estimates it appears that there were increased areas sown to wheat, oats, barley, rye and corn and that the wheat acreage has probably yielded a record output. Barley, oats and rye are bountiful crops, but corn will probably give the poorest result in twenty years.

A DURABLE STACK COVER.

Will Be Found Convenient to Use For Many Purposes.

A very durable stack cover can be made of boards in sections about four feet wide by six feet long. Place four boards one inch by four feet by six inches side by side and fasten together with braces. Paint joints on upper side and paint bats before covering the joints. Do not run bats way to the top, but run one bat along the top, extending over about two inches on half of them and put no bats on the other half, so that the bat will cover er them both. Put bats on right side of each section so that it will cover the edge of next section. Place barn hasps on the bats so that they will fit staples on the companion section. Care should be taken to get these hasps and staples tightly located. These covers will be found to be very convenient to use as stack covers and for machinery, chicken coops, pig shade, cattle shade, etc. Being light and movable, they can be put to a great number of uses and, being rigid, are not easily blown away, nor will they sag—lowa Homestead.

Winter Care of Peach Trees.

Peach trees are especially subject to the attacks of the San Jose scale. The bark of infested trees is covered with a crust of grayish scales, the insects multiplying rapidly and finally killing the tree. The remedy is spraying with lime-sulphur during the winter. When trees are badly infested it may be necessary to prune them back severely before applying the spray. Take care to burn all the wood cut from the trees.

Electricity For Chickens.

Before the London Royal Society of Arts, Thorne Baker, the electrician, advocated the application of electricity to chicken farming. Experiments, he said, had proved that chickens could be grown under electric stimulus at about double the normal rate and with a mortality practically nonexistent. An induction coil giving a one inch spark could successfully treat 1,000 chickens.

THE SKUNK.

Field observations which have been conducted lately by the federal department of agriculture seem to indicate in a very conclusive manner that the common skunk occupies a most important place in our agricultural economy. Its food has been found to consist largely of insects, mainly of those species which are very destructive to garden and forage crops. They destroy immense numbers of white grubs, grasshoppers, crickets, cutworms, hornets, wasps and other injurious insects. The alarming increase in the number of white grubs in some sections is largely due to the extermination of these valuable yet often noxious animals. In connection with the work of the range caterpillar investigations in northeastern New Mexico it has been found that skunks destroy a great many of the pupae of this caterpillar. In many areas, consisting of hundreds of acres, from 25 to 75 per cent of the pupae had been carried off, while in a few isolated places as high as 95 per cent of the pupae had been devoured by skunks. In all instances where the excrement of these animals was examined the shells of the pupae of the range caterpillar were found to comprise a very large percentage.

THE POTATO QUARANTINE.

Following the hearing held by officials of the department of agriculture at Washington a few days before Christmas on the matter of the admission of potatoes from foreign countries, the secretary of agriculture issued two orders which it is thought will control the situation and adequately protect the interests of American potato growers. The first order provides for the admission of disease freed potatoes from uninfected foreign districts under proper regulation and inspection. The other temporarily extends the quarantine against imported potatoes, effective since Sept. 20, 1912, against Newfoundland, the islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, Great Britain and Ireland, Germany and Austro-Hungary, to include the rest of continental Europe and the Dominion of Canada. As soon as any of the prescribed countries can be shown to be free from disease the quarantine will be lifted, and potatoes will be admitted under proper regulation and inspection.

Get a Cake For Washday

Housewives! Here's a soap that will save you the backaches of washday. It does all the real work and makes washing much easier. Don't rub the clothes on the washboard—just soap, soak, then rinse—and they will be spotless! Use either hot or cold water. It contains borax—the greatest of dirt looseners. Makes snow-white suds. For the filmy laces, as well as the heavy blankets, it's the perfect soap. Cannot possibly roughen or injure the hands. Will make your clothes last longer—because there's no rubbing to wear out the fabric. Your grocer has it or will get it.
Here are three other matchless time and labor savers. Give them a trial—

Cow Particular as to Its Tipple.

A Traloe (England) farmer has a cow which refuses to drink water supplied in the ordinary way. Then she is thirsty she leaves the field, goes to a lane where there is a water tap, turns this on and takes a drink. The story is supported by photographs, and the cow is credited with turning the tap off after drinking.

An Ingenious Mark

By EDITH V. ROSS

Nathan Hartwell, fifty years ago a prospector in the gold regions of Colorado, entered a tavern one evening at B. in a very excited state. A couple of men standing at the bar noticed him and heard him ask the landlord for writing materials. These he took to a table and sat down to write a letter.

"Do you know what's the matter with him?" asked one of his observers.

"No, I don't."
"He's struck a bonanza. There's nothing else in this here country to affect a man like that. I've seen men in that fix before and know the symptoms."

"Well?"
"Well, I think there's somepin in it for us."

"How?"
"We can keep an eye on him, see where his claim is located and jump it."

At that moment one of the conspirators noticed a man reading a newspaper by a window and put his finger on his lip. The two emptied their glasses and went out. As soon as they had done so the man reading the newspaper arose and, going to Hartwell, said:

"My friend, I overheard those two men talking about you, and I wish to warn you." Then he told Hartwell what he had heard. Hartwell appeared to be very much affected by the information. He thanked the stranger, but said nothing about the truth or falsity of the conspirators' surmise.

Hartwell had struck a rich vein of ore and was writing to his daughter, Mabel, in the east to announce the fact.

One day Hartwell was found dead near the hole he was pretending to work. Not long after his death two men laid claim to the place where he was supposed to be digging, but finding nothing, they soon abandoned it.

Mabel Hartwell had been posted by her father as to his fears of losing his property, and he had given her some idea as to the location. But the exact spot was unknown to her, her father not daring to state it, fearing that his letter might be interrupted.
As soon as she had been informed of her father's death she determined to go west with a view to claiming his mine.

When she reached the scene of her father's efforts she first made inquiries for the conspirators, but they had left and no one knew where they had gone. Mabel had the good sense to realize that it would be difficult to find and punish them, and even if she did it would not bring her father back to life. She knew that as he had been very desirous that she should have the property he had discovered and set about to find it.

Alone she visited the location that he had given her. She found it in a canyon shut in on either side by high mountains. There was a house at the mouth of the canyon, where she obtained lodgings and set out to try to discover the mine. But she had little hope, for knowing that her father had been watched, she inferred that he would not mark it. Nevertheless, not long before his death Hartwell had written her that he was trying to find some mark by which in case anything should happen to him he might show her and her alone the exact spot under which lay the rich vein of ore he had discovered, for he had obliterated all trace of his mine.

Mabel hoped that her father had hid upon some mark that only she would understand, but had been stopped from communicating it to her by his sudden taking away. Her experience had made her suspicious of every one, and she dare not take any person with her.
Fortunately it was summer, and the weather was fine. She made daily searches in the canyon, which, though but a mile in length, was very rugged and hard to get over.

One day she came to a rock on which she was much astonished to find her own name, "Mabel," carved in rude letters. Beneath was an arrow and beneath the arrow a date—July 15.
There was no year given, only the month and day of the month. Naturally Mabel turned her glance in the direction the arrow pointed. The first object in line was a perpendicular rock, very thin, its outline being like a sugar loaf. Indeed, one side of it was an edge like an ax, some parts of which were not over a foot thick.

Mabel fell to thinking on the problem. The arrow appeared to be intended to direct her attention to the thin side of the rock, which was directly in line with it. What did the date mean? The day Mabel found the sign was the 20th of June. Her father had been dead nearly a year, having been murdered on the 18th of July, three days after the carved date.
Mabel examined the thin rock carefully and found that a hole half an inch in diameter had been drilled through its thinnest part. Mabel at once inferred that this hole had something to do with the date inscribed with the arrow and her name.

The date carved on the rock would come around in two weeks, and Mabel resolved to wait and look through the drilled hole on the day mentioned. She did not need to look through it, for on that day the sun sent its light through it, making a spot on the ground some thirty feet distant. Mabel, hopeful, marked the spot, went away and, having made her claim, returned with those she could trust. The earth was opened, and the mine was found. Before leaving for home Mabel sold it for $100,000 and a quarter interest.

Making the Little Farm Pay

By C. C. BOWSFIELD

THE actual money made on a small farm comes when we are above the average in quality and production.

Those who stand on the common level will get a living, but not much more.
Farming needs individuality of character and purpose just as running a store or a factory does.

If the usual profit in a flock of hens is $1 each above the cost of food the aim should be to increase egg production and the sale of broilers or other kinds of fancy poultry so that there will be a profit of $2 for each hen kept. This is to be accomplished by selecting pullets from the best laying mothers and by breeding up with full blooded males.

If the cows in a dairy herd are paying an average of $100 a year, make an effort to raise it to $200. Perhaps the quickest way to gain this end is by discarding all animals that fail to give five gallons of milk per day for the greater part of the year. The stock may be gradually improved by selection and breeding. It may be possible also to sell a part of the milk or cream to private customers who will pay double the wholesale rate.

It is not necessary that the farmer should replace all of his grade cows with high priced, pure bred Holsteins, Jerseys, Guernseys, or Ayrshires.
However, for successful and profitable dairying it is absolutely necessary that he realize the remarkable difference in productive capacity of the individual cows in the same herd, though these cows are cared for by the same man and are consuming practically the same amount of feed.

Recently a herd of hogs from the northwest was sold in one of the central markets for $8.50 per 100 pounds.
A herd of similar size from a so called corn belt state sold for the same market on the same day for $7.50. The northwestern hogs were of a variety, including berries—a liberal amount of alfalfa, a little ground wheat, some corn and some sugar beet sirup. The other herd of hogs was fattened at most exclusively on corn.

Not only did the northwestern hogs bring a higher price per 100 pounds, but they put on flesh more rapidly and economically than the others and were never very unsatisfactory. With the present knowledge of alfalfa growing no farmer, even in the strictly corn states, can find a reasonable excuse for not having some of this to feed his hogs.

Hogs need to run at large in a field where there is forage. This may be clover, alfalfa, rape or chickpeas. In this way they attain growth and put on flesh better than they will if permanently penned up. If they can have whey or skimmed milk once a day this will assist the economical production of meat.
The aim must be to bring the hog up to 200 or 300 pounds at such a moderate cost that there will be a liberal profit when it is marketed.

With an abundance of hay and corn there ought to be a good profit in fattening beef animals, few or many, according to the size of the farm. It would appear that with the judicious selection of feeders, with the careful handling of the animals while in the feed lot and with an even break on other conditions, cattle feeding ought to be fairly profitable.

Farmers have come to realize the value of maintaining soil fertility and are using manure as liberally as possible. Land, to be made a source of continuous profit, must be kept fertile.
The proper rotation of crops combined with the raising of live stock, will contribute largely in the maintenance of soil fertility.

Intelligent, painstaking effort, based upon the teachings of science, is the price of many farmers' success.

Care of Plants in Winter.

Look to the dahlias and cannas, tubers stored in the cellar. If too damp mold will have formed and cause decay if not removed. Spread the tubers out where the air is dry and separate the perfectly good roots from those touched with mold. If, on the contrary, the roots look shriveled, put them near the floor in a damp corner of the cellar. Ventilation must be given to the cellar during the winter to keep it dry.

Be very sure that there are no cracks or loose window panes to let in draft and frost.

Healthy Hair, Free From All Dandruff

Unsightly, matted, scraggy hair is a sign of neglect—of dandruff, the hair destroyer.

Surely use Parisian Sage. It is a scientific preparation, based on a thorough knowledge of what is needed to cleanse the scalp and hair, keeping them perfectly healthy, stop scalp itch and falling hair, and make hair grow.
Get a 50 cent bottle from People's Drug Store to-day—pour a little on a sponge or cloth and rub lightly over the hair, taking a small strand at a time—rub it into the scalp. Presto! the dandruff surely disappears; the hair is free from dust and excessive oil and is doubly beautiful. Try it now —it will not only save your hair and make it soft, fluffy and abundant, but give it that incomparable gloss and beauty you desire.

AN ICEHOUSE FOR THE FARM.

Where the getting of a supply of ice is not attended by too great expense or inconvenience plans should be made now for an icehouse which will furnish an ample supply for next summer's use in the house and dairy. A considerable sum of money may be put into such a structure, but that is not necessary if one has rough lumber with which to construct it. Excellent houses may be made of clay, hollow blocks, cement blocks and also of rough lumber that would not be worth much for anything else. Of course the better the lumber and the closer the boards fit the less will be the evaporation. In making ready for the ice house it is well to see that the site selected is naturally well drained. Some poles or short pieces of wood should first be laid down and a layer of sawdust over these. This forms a porous foundation, which will keep the lower stratum of cakes from testing in water soaked sawdust. While it is well to have a double wall, so that sawdust may be put between, it is not an indispensable condition. To house a supply sufficient for the average farm the house should be about fourteen feet square. In piling the tiers of ice it should not come nearer than fifteen inches to the walls, while a sufficient space should be left above the ice to give good circulation of the air. Cakes cut 18 by 22 inches and about ten inches in thickness are a convenient size to handle. After three or four weeks the sawdust will have settled considerably, and it should then be tamped down with a board or pole.

"MOULTING TIME"

IN THE STORES

January is the season when the stores go through the process of clearing stocks—a natural and healthy business transaction.

They plan to get out all the Winter merchandise they can and get ready for Spring.
Believing in the adage that "Trade follows the price," they act accordingly. What the advertising at this season of the year may lack in literary quality it more than makes up in pocket-book appeal.

Glance through the advertising in today's Times and you will see the passing of the seasons.

The new goods are knocking at the doors and you find the whispers of Spring creeping in their business plans for 1914. If you asked them what the most important part of these next years plans were, they would tell you: Provisions for adver-

FIVE TRUST BILLS NEARLY READY

Senate and House Committees Are at Work.

CALL THEM "5 BROTHERS"

Measures Carrying Out Wilson's Views to Be Presented as Quickly as Possible.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Five bills to carry out the suggestions of President Wilson's trust message are being completed in congress. The bills will embrace the following:

An interstate trade commission, with inquisitorial powers into corporations and authority to aid the courts and keep big business within the law.

Prohibition of interlocking directorates in interstate corporations, railroads and national banks.

Empowering the interstate commerce commission to regulate the issuance of railroad stocks and bonds.

A Sherman law definitions bill, that would define specifically what constitutes conspiracy in restraint of trade.

A general trade relations measure seeking to eliminate "cut throat" competitive business and which would provide punishment for individuals instead of business and made it possible for firms or individuals injured by unlawful business restraint to avail themselves of findings against combinations and institute suits in equity for relief.

Following a conference at the White House, members of the house judiciary and senate interstate commerce committees went to the capitol with the program as outlined in mind and revision of tentative drafts of measures already prepared was undertaken.

Senator Newlands, chairman of the committee which will have charge of the legislation in the senate, and Chairman Clayton, Representatives Carlin and Floyd, of the house judiciary committee on trust legislation, were in the conference with the president.

Representative Adamson, chairman of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce, which will have jurisdiction over the bills relating to government supervision of railroad securities and interstate trade commission, expects to confer with President Wilson. There is already pending before his committee a railroad securities bill drawn by himself, which will form the basis for the administration measure.

A trade relations bill drafted by the judiciary sub-committee and Senator Newlands and shown to the president may be introduced by Senator Newlands, and, with other measures pending, turned over to the Adamson committee to aid it in its work.

Senator Newlands was with the president a short time, laying before him in a redraft of his bill for an interstate trade commission. Mr. Newlands proposed consolidating the various bills into a single administration measure. The question, however, was not determined finally.

Senator Newlands also discussed vacancies on the interstate commerce commission with the president. Nominations are expected within a few days.

Hired 'Wife' to Weep for Him
But Court Learns of Trick and Sentences Picpocket.

New York, Jan. 22.—When, nearly a year ago, Samuel Berman was arraigned before Judge Nott in the court of general sessions on a charge of picking pockets, a wistful woman, with four children clinging to her skirts, wept pitifully.

The prisoner said she was his wife. The court, touched, suspended sentence and a collection of $100 was taken up for the family.

Berman was in court again on a similar charge. The court eyed him wrathfully. He had learned that the prisoner's "wife and children" of a year ago had been hired for the occasion.

The prisoner pleaded guilty to duping the judge and to picking pockets. He was sentenced to five years in Sing Sing.

VOLCANO RIPPED ISLAND

500 Reported Perished on Ambrim, New Hebrides Group.

Sydney, N. S. W., Jan. 22.—The entire face of Ambrim Island, in the New Hebrides group, was altered by the volcanic upheavals of last month, according to official advices.

It is estimated that 500 natives perished. The site of the mission hospital now lies beneath eighty feet of water, while there are two miles of hilly country where ships previously floated.

Fall Downstairs Kills.

Pottsville, Pa., Jan. 22.—Charles L. Adam, of Mahanoy City, fell down a flight of stairs at a hotel at Barnesville and was killed. He was one of a sleighing party from Mahanoy City. It is believed he tripped at the top of the stairway.

German Army Aviator Killed by Fall.
Munich, Germany, Jan. 22.—Sergeant Schweisser, a German army aviator, was killed here by falling with his aeroplane, which he attempted to turn too sharply.

Rooms for rent.

JAPAN STIRS UP LAND CASE

Baron Makino Suggests Change in Plan For Its Solution.

Tokio, Jan. 22.—Japan regards as unsatisfactory the replies made by the United States to her protests in connection with the California alien land ownership legislation, according to a statement made by Baron Nobuaki Makino, the Japanese foreign minister, in the course of a lengthy summary of the Japanese-American negotiations given in his annual address to parliament. He continued:

"Japan recognizes the necessity of elaborating other plans for the solution of the question. The nature of these plans I am as yet unable to report."

Baron Makino's declaration that "no answer whatever" had been made by the United States to Japan's third protest presented in August was the signal for an attack on the government by several members of the opposition, who alleged that too much reliance had been placed on the good will of America.

MEDALS AWARDED 30 FOR HEROISM

Pensions For Dependents of Those Who Gave Lives.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 22.—Individual acts of heroism which the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission has recognized since it was established ten years ago were brought up to a total of 871 when thirty names were added to the honor roll.

In eleven cases silver medals were awarded, in nineteen cases bronze medals. Seventeen of the heroes lost their lives, and to the dependents of thirteen of these pensions aggregating $7580 were granted, and to the dependents of the other four who sacrificed their lives, sums totaling $3000, to be applied subject to the approval of the commission, to the liquidation of indebtedness or to meet other expenses.

In three cases sums aggregating $4000 were appropriated for educational purposes, payments to be made as needed and approved, and in nine cases awards aggregating $8200 were made, to be applied toward the purchase of homes or other worthy purposes.

The youngest heroes were two boys, twelve years old, of Oshkosh, Mich.

The following are included in the list announced:

Gordon T. Granger, Bayonne, N. J., foreman of a gas compressor plant, saved a comrade from suffocation, Jan. 9, 1912. Silver medal.

Edward A. Dalton, Bayonne, N. J., saved Gordon T. Granger, who himself had gone to the rescue of a comrade from suffocation in a manhole at Bayonne, Jan. 9, 1913. Awarded a bronze medal.

Francisco Corsaro, of Clymer, Pa., shot and permanently disabled in saving Matthew Leonard, policeman, from assassination by three foreigners, Nov. 13, 1913. Seventy-five dollars monthly and bronze medal.

PITTSBURGH CHURCH BURNED

Flames Jump Street and Burn Half Dozen Residences.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 22.—Intense excitement was created here when a general alarm fire too all the downtown fire companies to Fifth avenue and Brady street, where St. Agnes' Catholic church, an immense frame structure, was in flames.

Next door to the church was the Soho public school, but its 600 pupils were removed without panic.

Within an hour the church had been destroyed and, fanned by a strong wind, the flames had jumped Fifth avenue and attacked half a dozen residences on the opposite side of the street. The St. Agnes parish house also caught fire and the Soho public baths were endangered.

Telephone Operators Raised 10%.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 22.—The Cleveland Telephone company announced an increase in wages of 10 per cent to 1000 telephone operators, effective the first of this month.

A FAD OF THE MOMENT
IS THE SHORT COAT

The short coat is favored in Paris by the leading gown and suit makers and promises to be a feature of the spring styles. Many of them are belted, others are on the bolero order. The bolero is charmingly suited to the new skirts with their ruffled and draped hips and is far too becoming a mode not to "catch on". If the hip trimmed skirts continue popular and every indication is that they will, the vogue of the short coat is assured.

The modish suit sleeve is three-quarter or full length although we glimpse here and there a short sleeved model that is decidedly smart.

Number 8140 is an unusual little coat in embossed velvet. It has a three-quarter kimono sleeve, a rolled collar and smartly cut revers which may be rolled back as illustrated, or closed and buttoned on the side front.

The skirt (8148) is a peg-top, draped in paider effect in front. It is made up in black chiffon velvet.

A smart feature of number 8158 is the ragon effect in the back of the blouse. The sleeve is a full-length design; the shaped peplum and the small sailor collar are effective touches. A two-piece skirt completes the costume.

Dull green duvety is the material used with a narrow strip of skunk edging the blouse. Collar and cuffs are of broad velvet in soft colors.

Number 8140—sizes 24 to 32.

HORSE LORE.

Try to turn your horse's head back to the wind and blanket him when tying him up.

Give a bran mash Saturday night or Sunday noon and on Wednesday night also if work is slack.

The actual cost to keep added to the service fee of the sire represents the amount at which horses you raise stand up.

Do not forget to salt the horse once a week, or better still, keep salt always before him. He knows best how much he needs.

Be so careful in the choice of a blacksmith that it is not necessary for your horse to wear an interfering boot.

DISEASES OF HOGS.

Worms and Lack of Mineral Matter Often Cause Serious Loss.

Whenever and wherever hog cholera is prevailing all other epidemics to which swine are subject are apt to be classified as hog cholera. Here is an incident that took place in Will county, Ill., which is a case in point.

The same is related by the Farmer's Review as illustrating the value of a county adviser:

One day a hurry up call was received from a farmer whose hogs were dying from supposed cholera. Of 300 head but fifty were left, and the external appearance of these did not indicate cholera. The adviser had a sick one killed and immediately made a postmortem examination. The vital organs were found to be in a healthy condition, but the intestines were full of worms. Mr. Grannis advised a vermifuge for expelling the worms and the feeding of a mixture of limestone screenings, rock phosphate and wood ashes. This advice was followed, and no further loss of pigs followed. This advice is invaluable to the hog raiser.

Worms and lack of mineral matter are two great causes that contribute to a bad physical condition, which makes pigs susceptible to any disease that may come along, and if they die in any number it is called cholera.

WARDING OFF CHOLERA.

Prevention of Disease in the Hog Herd Better Than Treatment.

There is a farm in central Ohio which is noted for its fine hogs. There are always from 150 to 200 good porkers on it, says the Farm and Fireside. Cholera has raged all about it, but there has never been a case on the farm. It is a farm of over 1,000 acres.

No water is used from any source outside the farm. So no infection can come in the water the hogs drink.

One day a neighbor came wandering through the place. The owner halted him and asked him whether the report was true that he came from a farm infected with cholera. The neighbor admitted that his hogs were dying of

A Dairy Improver.

The pure bred bull has done a great deal to improve the dairy herds of the middle west. All states, or at least the principal ones, are reporting an increased dairy production, and the results may be traced to better cows, not more of them.

Mrs. Lapsing Explains.

Fine Work on Billiard Cues.

Billiard cues are made of ash, with usually a lighter wood at the handle. A good cue should balance if a man's finger be placed under the middle of it, and as it tapers the butt must be of lighter wood than the shaft. But there is a vast amount of individuality in cues. The making of serviceable cues has been an industry of a particular class of French peasants time out of mind.

Spark-Power Motor.

A West Virginia schoolman has installed a small isolated plant in an anteroom of the schoolhouse. It is necessarily a heating plant because it is an electric "sparker". This engine delivers 5 s. b. p. s. (5 sharp blows per second). The lady engineer says that while the run is short it is long on efficiency. Central stations might adopt the "sparker", says Power, as a means of building up a day load.

A Case of Repentance

By MARGARET C. DEVEREAUX

We have usually presumed that repentance must come before death.

Eleanor Blake lost her father when she was a little girl, and her mother took for a second husband one William Markland, a widower with a son, at the time of the marriage twelve years older than his stepister. The widow was very poor, and Mr. Markland was rich. His son, Joseph, was a singular youth, sometimes under the influence of pure and noble emotions and sometimes apparently swayed by the devil himself. When he was in the former condition he was very kind to Eleanor, but when in the latter he seemed to hate her.

Eleanor was a favorite with her stepfather and he hoped when she grew to be a woman she would marry his son, for he was aware of the latter's Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde disposition, and he believed that she would be able to tide him over his evil periods, but he only wished for this; he did not attempt to bring it about. Eleanor's mother died when she was fifteen years old, and after being made again a widow Mr. Markland's affection for his little stepdaughter was much enhanced. His son's periods of wickedness seemed to be increasing on him and were a source of distress to his father.

Then Joe Markland, when Eleanor was seventeen years old, delighted his father by showing evidence that he was falling in love with his stepister. Eleanor, however, seemed to regard him only as a brother, but as such was extremely fond of him. He asked for a different love, and when she told him that it was not possible for her to give it to him he fell into one of his wicked states and treated her shamefully.

Joe Markland disappeared one day and was not seen at home again for a long while. Meanwhile his father failed in health, and Eleanor was his sole comfort. She considered it her duty as well as her preference to remain single and to minister to him, though she had many suitors. All this time no one knew where Joe Markland was till a few months before his father died, when Eleanor received a letter from him evidently written in one of his angelic moods. He regretted that she could not love him, but did not blame her. He wrote to ask her forgiveness for the way he had treated her.

Eleanor wrote that his father could not live long and begged him to come home and give the invalid what comfort he could during the short time that remained before death. Joe wrote that he would come at once; but though only a few weeks were needed for the journey, he did not arrive for several months. He reached home the day his father died, and it was perhaps as well that he did not arrive sooner, for, though he showed no outward signs of his mood to those who did not know him well, he was, nevertheless, in one of his devilish conditions. His father was barely able to bid him goodbye and whispered to him that he hoped he would some day secure Eleanor for his wife.

Joe took charge of the household and household affairs till after the funeral, when a search was made for the will. No will was found. Joe, being sole heir at law, took possession of the property and told Eleanor that if she would marry him he would turn over the management of it to her. Eleanor refused. Quite possibly, knowing as she did that her stepfather desired the match, she might have yielded, but she saw that Joe was at the time not his better self.

Joe Markland remained at home long enough to put his estate under a competent manager, whom he directed to pay his sister $50 a month and permitted her to remain in the home-stead.

One morning looking out of an upper window she saw her stepbrother coming. Though some distance from her, he appeared bedraggled. He was walking rapidly, and she had scarcely seen him when she heard him at the door. She ran down to meet him, but he was not where she had expected to find him. Thinking he had entered before her, she went into the living room. There stood Joe with a heavenly look on his face, such as she had often seen there when he had become repentant. She was about to spring toward him when she noticed that he was dripping with water. And singularly enough there was a salt odor about him. She ran out of the room to get something in which to wrap him till he could change his clothing, and when she returned with a blanket she had snatched from a bed Joe was not there.

What had become of him? She was about to run into the hall to look for him when she noticed on a table a folded document. She took it up and found it soaked with water. Clinging to it was a fine strand of seaweed.

The paper was found to be a will of William Markland, leaving all his property to his stepdaughter, Eleanor Blake.

Eleanor was found lying on the floor in a swoon, and an illness followed. When she recovered she said that she had found the will in the attic under a leak in the roof. Soon after this news came of the death of Joe Markland. He had been drowned trying to swim across an inlet on the coast of Tasmania.

Had he stolen the will while his father was lying dead, possibly in the same room with him?

Be Pretty! Turn Gray Hair Dark
Try Grandmother's old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

BILL FOR LARGE PEACE MEMORIAL

Bill introduced in the House of Representatives Asking for Half a Million to Erect Peace Memorial at Gettysburg.

The creation of the Gettysburg Peace Memorial Commission, charged with the duty of determining and procuring a suitable location and the erection thereon of a memorial on the Gettysburg battlefield to commemorate the reunion of the Union and Confederate veterans here last July, was proposed in a bill introduced Saturday by Representative Sherley, of Kentucky.

The bill directs that the Commission shall comprise the Secretary of War, John P. Nicholson, chairman of the Gettysburg National Military Park Commission, and Andrew Cowan, Eli Torrance, John C. Black and Thomas S. Hopkins, representing the Union veterans, and former Secretary of the Navy Hilary A. Herbert, William Hodges Mann, E. McEver Law and A.
J. West, representing the Confederate veterans. The bill would provide an appropriation of $500,000 for the memorial.

The movement is a direct outgrowth of the great anniversary here last July. When the arrangements for that event were in progress it was the plan to lay the cornerstone of a peace memorial on July fourth but, for some reason, that project never materialized.

Fired with enthusiasm over the success of the anniversary, a number of the veterans returned home determined that some lasting memorial in commemoration of the great celebration should be erected.

That the bill will pass and the memorial be erected seems to be most probable in view of the interest being taken in it, the country over, and Gettysburg is likely to secure a memorial far more imposing than any now on the field.

OLD DEED

Parchment Deed for Adams County Farm 123 Years Old.

Ex-County Commissioner Samuel A.
Buhrman, of Rouzerville, near Waynesboro, has in his possession an old parchment deed that is very well preserved, and the ink on which is as legible and really bright as when first written. The deed was made July 2, 1790, and was for a tract of 151 acres of land in the township of Hamiltons Bann, York county (now Adams county). The deed was made by Reynolds Ramsey and "Noamy", his wife, to William Loudon, of the same township. The price paid by Mr. Loudon for the land was $2,000. The farm has for years been known as the Myers farm, and is in a high state of cultivation.

THEATRE CHANGE

FATALLY HURT BY FALLING TIMBER

Clayton Blocher, Bendersville Man, Killed in Harrisburg when Struck on the Head by Heavy Piece of Timber. Funeral Tuesday.

Struck by a heavy plank which fell from the third story of a building in Harrisburg to the first floor where he was working, Clayton Blocher, recently of Bendersville, died in the Harrisburg hospital a short time after the accident occurred.

Mr. Blocher was in the employ of M. H. Gettys, a Harrisburg contractor, and was doing some carpentering work on the first floor of a building under construction at Woodbine and Green street. He had been at work but a short time after his noon meal when a heavy plank came crashing down from the third floor and, before Mr. Blocher had a chance to get out of the way, had struck him on the head with terrific force. It was at once seen that he was seriously hurt and an ambulance from the Harrisburg hospital was summoned. At that institution it was found that the skull had been fractured and the injured man lingered for only a few hours before death followed.

Mr. Blocher moved to Harrisburg from Bendersville about one year ago.
He leaves his second wife, before marriage, was Mrs. Bushey, and five children of his first wife, Chandler Blocher, of Bendersville; Edward Blocher, of Biglerville; Mrs. Henry Crum, of Bendersville; Miss Anna Blocher and George Blocher, at home in Harrisburg. He also leaves his father and step mother, Mr. and Mrs.
Edward Blocher, of near Bendersville.
One sister survives, Mrs. Wierman, of Bendersville.

The body will be brought to Bendersville station at 8:41 Tuesday morning and services will follow immediately in the Methodist church at Bendersville. Interment in Bendersville cemetery. Friends and relatives will accept this as notice of the funeral.

REV. DAVID C. EBERHART

The Rev. David C. Eberhart, chaplain of the Eighty-seventh regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, during the Civil War, former member of the state legislature, and known widely among Adams County veterans as "the fighting chaplain", died at his home in Shrewsbury on Sunday at 1:15 p. m. He was eighty-seven years old. The Rev. Mr. Eberhart, who was one of the best known citizens of Shrewsbury township, had been sick for a long time and had been in a feeble condition for several years. For the last two years he had been blind.

Chaplain Eberhart was discharged with his regiment on Oct. 13, 1864, and has since resided in Shrewsbury. Until infirmities compelled him to retire he was engaged in the practice of dentistry and was active in the work of the Methodist church and Sunday school. Chaplain Eberhart was dearly beloved by the men of the Eighty-seventh regiment and in his later years was frequently visited by them at his home in Shrewsbury. With his death there remain but two commissioned officers of the field and staff of the regiment still living, one of whom is his colonel, John W. Schall, of Norristown, and David F. McKinney, of Lime Kiln, Md., the surgeon.

Funeral in Shrewsbury on Tuesday.

WILL SAFEGUARD LOCAL FACTORY

Reaser Furniture Company Installed
Automatic Water System for Fire Fighting Purposes. Latest Improved Device for Protection.

Protecting the factory of the Reas-er Furniture Company and all other buildings in that immediate vicinity an automatic sprinkler system is now in course of installation at a cost of $8000. The system is being installed by the Automatic Sprinkler Company, of America, with offices in New York City.

It will provide for flooding with water at any point in the factory and is so complete that every square foot of floor space is covered by its supply.
A temperature of 120 degrees at once releases the water and a fire occurring when no one is about the plant will be met immediately by the rapid flow of water from the many pipes. Only the portion of the factory in which the fire is burning will be affected, the sprinkling system not being affected except where the temperature has reached the height required to open the pipes.

To supply this system, a tank of 50,000 gallons capacity is in course of erection on top of a seventy foot steel structure, giving ample flow and pressure not only for the sprinkler apparatus but for the four large fire plugs which have been put in position about the plant for exterior use. All the pipes are under ground except the "risers", which supply the smaller pipes from which the sprinkling is done.

CHRISTMAS WEATHER

Rains and Cloudy Skies all Week, from the Weather Santa.

Christmas week weather will be unsettled over much of the United States, the weather bureau experts say, and frequent rains are predicted for the Pacific coast. Temperatures will be near or below the seasonal average generally, and the skies will be overcast almost entirely throughout the week.

"A disturbance now developing in the Southwest", the weekly bulletin says, "will advance northeastward, attended by rains and snows, and cross the Great Central valleys about Tuesday and the Eastern states Wednesday or Thursday.

"Another disturbance off the North Pacific coast will cause general rains and snows on the Pacific slope during the next several days. It will reach the Middle West Thursday or Friday and the Eastern states near the end of the week, and will be preceded by a general change to warmer weather and be followed by considerably colder weather.

"There are at present no indications of a severe cold wave during the week."

HELD FOR COURT

Woman Arrested for Theft of Goods Must Appear in Court.

The case of Mrs. Cora Bair, of near White Hall, who was arrested on oath of Michael S. Niles, Esq., of York, receiver of the Talbot stores, with the theft of a set of valuable furs on December 5, was given a hearing before Justice Sell in Hanover Saturday morning. George E. Neff, Esq., of York, represented the prosecutor, and J. Donald Swope, Esq., of Gettysburg, appeared for the defendant. After hearing several witnesses, the accused was held for court, having entered bail for her appearance before the Grand Jury.

NEW AUTO LAW SOON IN EFFECT

Provisions of New Law Governing Motor Driving Vehicles will Prove of Interest and Importance to Local Owners.

A new automobile law, which is of interest to the local autoists, becomes effective January 1, all other acts inconsistent therewith being repealed at that time.

For instance, in case a car is sold, another certificate may be obtained by the payment of $1, providing the machine is of equal or less horsepower than the old one, or the difference between the old one and the new is of greater horsepower. For motorcycle the registration fee will be $3, and for automobiles as follows: Up to 20 horsepower, $5; from 20 to 35 horsepower, $5; from 35 to 50 horsepower, $15; from 50 horsepower up, $20.

There are special fees for solid tired motor vehicles and traction engines.
The tag must be plainly displayed and illuminated at night and be parallel to the axle. If the tag is lost the owner has a week to obtain a new one and cannot be held within that time if he can make affidavit that his tag is lost or stolen and that he has applied for a driver's license at $2.

Parties driving cars other than owners or chauffeurs, can get licenses free of charge. Licenses can be revoked after a hearing for due cause.
A non-resident is only required to show the license of his state if a similar law is in force in that state.

The horn must be sounded at every street or road crossing, on a dangerous curve, or any other place where noticed so to do by sign. On the other hand, a driver is prohibited from sounding his horn unnecessarily or unnecessarily cutting off his muffler.

When signaled by the driver of a horse the driver of the car must stop and, if necessary, stop the engine.
The act has a clause against "road hogs", providing that any car must turn out when signalled to by a car of greater speed coming up behind.

A motorcar must not pass a trolley car which has stopped on the side on which passengers are getting on or off.

An intoxicated person operating a car is liable to a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $300 or imprisonment for one year or both. A car must stop at the direction of any police officer or constable in uniform or showing a badge, not otherwise.

When arrested an automobilist can deposit personal property, such as a watch or other valuables in place of bail. Penalties for breaking any of the provisions of this act are from $10 to $25 for the first offense with 10 days' imprisonment if the fine is not paid within 48 hours. For the second offense the fine is from $25 to $50; the third offense, $50 to $200. Suits for damages may be brought in any county which the plaintiff chooses.

All local speed regulators are abolished except in parks. It is provided that no person shall operate his car at an unreasonable rate of speed or at more than 24 miles per hour on country roads. A tower borough may establish a 15-mile zone where the speed must be reduced to 15 miles an hour within this zone and to a point one-quarter of a mile beyond.

Medical Advertising GRIPPE PREVALENT

How to Regain Strength After a Severe Attack.

With so much gripe prevalent this winter a few words of advice regarding its cause and treatment will not be out of place.

Gripe is an infectious disease easily taken when the system is in a tired or run-down condition.

The best means of prevention are to keep the blood in good healthy condition, and if the system gets into a weak, run-down condition, take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic.

A lady from Long Branch, N. J., says: "Gripe left me in a nervous, weakened, run-down condition. After taking three bottles of Vinol I am better and stronger than I have been for years, and I cheerfully recommend Vinol to all who have suffered from the gripe and need strength." (Name furnished on request.)

We have never sold in our store such a valuable strength creator and health restorer for the convalescent, the weak and run-down as Vinol, and your money will be returned if it does not do all we claim for it. People's Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.

P. S. If you have any skin trouble try Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

WILSON GOING TO MISSISSIPPI

May Leave Tomorrow After Signing Currency Bill.

Washington, Dec. 22. — President Wilson and his family will leave Washington right after he signs the currency bill, probably tomorrow, for Pass Christian, Miss., for a three weeks' rest and vacation. Leaving here tomorrow, the president would arrive in Pass Christian Christmas eve.

The president will not spend all his time at Pass Christian in resting and recuperating. According to high authority, the president will do these two important pieces of public business while away:

Write, or at least outline his message to congress recommending the changes he believes necessary to supplement the Sherman anti-trust law, to make that law so effective as to prevent possible escape of prison sentences for violators.

Select members of the federal reserve board, the men who will administer the government's new banking and currency system.

Between now and the time he leaves the president will not do more with either of these subjects than to confer with some of his advisers. It is probable that he will confer with Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo regarding the personnel of the reserve board. He will try to sandwich in a conference with the house and senate leaders of the congressional judiciary committee. The president already has conferred with Attorney General McReynolds on the anti-trust legislation.

GIRL A NEEDLE VICTIM

Reamstown, Pa., Dec. 22.—Miss Esther Keller is at her home here in a serious condition and the entire countryside is aroused over an attack on her by a masked highwayman, who jabbed a hypodermic needle into her arm, robbed her and left her senseless by the roadside.

The young woman was returning from her work. At a lonely point near the town the highwayman jumped from behind a tree and ordered her to halt. He grasped her arm, and when Miss Keller courageously tried to fight him off, jabbed her with the needle.

Miss Keller fainted. She had just received her pay of $12 a week, and the highwayman made off with this.

A DANGEROUS MISTAKE

Gettysburg Mothers Should not Neglect Kidney Weakness in Children.

Many children have weak kidneys. An early warning is bed-wetting. Often followed by backache, headache, languor.

This is a mistake to neglect these troubles. To blame the child for his own distress.

Seek to check the cause. Save the child from dangerous kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for weak kidneys. Gettysburg parents know their worth.

G. W. Bowers, carpenter, Gettysburg, Pa., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and have found that they do me more good than any other kidney remedy. One of the younger members of my family had weak kidneys and Doan's Kidney Pills cured her. I advise anyone who has kidney complaint to take this remedy."

If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Bowers had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50¢ all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

ROOSEVELT CLASH STIRS DIPLOMATS

Attack on Monroe Doctrine Arouses Colonel's Ire.

CHILE REPUDIATES IT

Dr. Martinez Says It is a Dead Issue, While Roosevelt Declares It is Still a Vital Policy of U. S.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Members of the diplomatic corps, especially representatives of the South American countries, were greatly interested in a report reaching Washington that former President Roosevelt and Mr. Marcial Martinez, at one time Chilean minister to the United States, had clashed in Santiago de Chile on account of divergent views on the Monroe Doctrine.

The Chilean is reported to have strongly dissented from the Roosevelt view that the much discussed doctrine is still a vital issue.

The reported debate attracted unusual interest in Washington, because both of the proposed speeches were reviewed before delivery by the Chilean foreign office.

Dr. Martinez, it was said at the Chilean legation, was selected as the spokesman of the Chilean government at the reception given the American visitor recently at the University of Santiago because of his warm friendship for the United States. He is one of the oldest and most eminent Chilean diplomats and made many lasting friendships during his tenure as minister in Washington many years ago.

In his address at the Roosevelt reception Dr. Martinez dealt with the Monroe Doctrine, characterizing it as a dead issue and arguing that the conditions which gave rise to its promulgation by President Monroe in 1823 have almost entirely disappeared.

This statement is said to have aroused the ire of Colonel Roosevelt, who replied with some heat, holding that the Monroe Doctrine still was a vital principle of foreign policy of the United States. He is said, too, to have argued to the Chilean diplomatist, incidentally, that it was ill-advised on such an occasion to inaugurate a controversy.

Then Colonel Roosevelt, according to report, stated that before leaving the United States, the texts of the addresses he proposed to deliver in Brazil, Argentina and Chile had been submitted to the diplomatic corps of those nations in Washington to avoid the inclusion of anything that might prove offensive to his hosts.

To this Dr. Martinez is said to have replied that his own address had been submitted to the Chilean foreign office three days before Colonel Roosevelt's arrival, and that as no objection had been raised in that quarter he could see no reason why the discussion of the Monroe Doctrine should be avoided as a dangerous issue.

Nothing official has reached the Chilean legation in Washington concerning any phase of what diplomatists are inclined to consider a delicate situation.

It is said that at the conclusion of the Roosevelt reception a demonstration against the American visitor was made by a small clique of Central American students. The story goes that as the colonel left the university the students shouted "Viva Colombia!" This incident, however, is understood in no way to have represented the general feeling of the populace.

MAN AND 26 HORSES BURNED

Watchman's Body Found Between Two Horses.

Philadelphia, Dec. 22.—Patrick Melody, a colored watchman for the Girard & Cohen stables, Ninth and Reed streets, was burned to death while trying to save some of the horses in his employers' stable, which caught fire. The body of the man was found between two horses burned to a crisp.

At the time the fire was discovered the stable had forty-five horses in it, nineteen of which were saved. The fire, which is supposed to have been either started by a workman who was sleeping in the stable, or of incendiary origin, completely destroyed the stables and threatened the closely populated tenements that surround the building.

Boy Falls 80 Feet; Unhurt.

New York, Dec. 22.—Richard Taylor, eleven years old, was playing hide-and-seek with three playmates on the roof of a seven-story apartment house. In an effort to dodge a pursuer he ran against the low railing which surrounds the alshaft, toppled over and plunged eighty feet to the pavement. When Frank Townsend, the janitor, picked the boy up, thinking he was dead, the lad cried lustily: "Le'go, le'go! Put me on my feet!" The boy was not seriously hurt.

The American league in its brief annual meeting at Chicago voted unanimously against the proposal to substitute a general interleague series for the world's series as now played, disapproved informally the demands of the Players' federation and pronounced several of them acceptable and appointed a committee to represent it in a small convention to consider revision of the rules. The meeting disposed of a number of routine matters, including the re-election of Charles W. Somers, president of the Cleveland club, as vice president.

DUPONTS BUY TROLLEY CO.

They Purchase Traction Lines in Johnstown, Pa.

Philadelphia, Dec. 22.—It now comes out that the Duponts, of Wilmington, Del., are again the owners of the property of the Johnstown Passenger Railway company, which controls and operates thirty miles of street car service in that city.

The property was purchased four years ago by the American Railways company, of Philadelphia, from the Duponts, and then leased back to the sellers, with an option to purchase.

Recently the management of the company exercised the right of purchase, forming the Johnstown Traction company to take over the property. It now develops that the Duponts are the men back of the new company.

Although declining to state the price that the Johnstown property had been sold for, officers of the American Railways company said that the property would be formally turned over to the Duponts the first week of the new year. The price supposed to have been paid is between five and seven million dollars.

The Johnstown Traction company will be merged with the other Dupont interests in Johnstown.

PRINCETON BANS STUDENT DRINKING

Will Prosecute Those Selling to Minors.

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 22.—Princeton has taken another step toward the solution of the drinking problem among students.

Dean Howard McClanahan has served notice to the proprietors of all the drinking places in Princeton that the university will hold them to strict account if liquor is served to minors.

"The present attitude of the college administration with reference to drinking is due to the belief that a strict insistence upon obedience to the laws of the state offers the best chance for the solution of the liquor problem in Princeton," said Dean McClanahan.

The Daily Princetonian, the undergraduate publication, stands back of Dean McClanahan, and in a long editorial says:

"Jack London, who cannot even be accused of temperance in his 'John Barleycorn,' advances as his reason for excessive drinking the fact that liquor is so easy to get. The bars are open, a man's friends are drinking—why not? It is a reasonable assumption. The true way to curtail drinking would be to make liquor hard to get without total prohibition."

THIEVES OVERRUN CHESTER

Burglars, Pickpockets and Ordinary Sneaks Make Several Rich Hauls.

Chester, Pa., Dec. 22.—Pickpockets, burglars and sneak thieves had a busy time in Chester, according to reports received at the city hall.

Miss Emily Cross reported that $28 which she had tucked away in her pocketbook to buy Christmas presents was stolen by a pickpocket.

William Upton, an uptown merchant, had $95 taken out of his cash register.

A wallet containing $47, two overcoats, two hats and two walking sticks were stolen from the residence of Joseph Deering.

Three diamond rings, two gold bracelets, a gold watch and chain and $87 in money were taken by a burglar from the residence of E. M. Bartow.

Mrs. William Kerr says a man in a frock coat and white tie called at her home and snatched a pocketbook containing $25 from a table in the living room. Before she could summon the police he escaped.

SUIT OVER MISSING COMMA

Valuable Instrument Seized as "Piano Stool" Under the Law.

York, Pa., Dec. 22.—The alleged lack of a tiny punctuation mark is at the bottom of a suit which Constable William Herman, of York, has brought against David Eberhart, a music dealer. Frederick G. First, a piano sales man, and Harvey Rudisill, a driver, charging the larceny of a piano which Herman alleges he looted upon in the home of Mrs. Edith McHugh for rent.

For the defendants who removed it, it is claimed that the piano belonged to the music house, as it was not entirely paid for by Mrs. McHugh, and that moreover the levy read, "One piano stool and scarf," with no comma to indicate that piano and stool were meant instead of "piano stool."

Two Boys Die in Burning House.

Somerville, N. J., Dec. 22.—Two ten-year-old boys were burned to death in a fire which destroyed a farmhouse occupied by five families of foreigners at Manville, near here. The fire started in the kitchen from an overheated stove. The dead are John Wlecorak and his cousin, Henry Worski. Mrs. Frances Wlecorak may die from her burns. Her husband was injured seriously.

Boy Gets Year For Stealing 11 Cents.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Dec. 22.—Michael Lentz, eighteen years old, was sentenced to serve one year in prison for the theft of 11 cents from his boarding boss, John Sabam. It was believed the court would parole him, but Judge O'Boyle sprung a sensation by sending him to prison for one year on imposing a fine of $25 and costs.

U. S. OWNERSHIP UP TO CONGRESS

Maryland Man Presents Resolution to Acquire Wire Lines.

SAYS RATES ARE TOO HIGH

Declares Government Should Have a Monopoly and Transfer All Telegraph and Telephone Lines to U. S.

Washington, Dec. 22.—The first legislative step toward the acquisition of telephone lines by the government was taken today, when Representative Lewis, of Maryland, introduced a resolution directing the house committee on postoffices to prepare and report a bill to bring about this great undertaking.

"The action of the Bell Telephone company to prevent litigation under the anti-trust law," Mr. Lewis said, "will not reduce a single telephone or telegraph rate in the United States, and so the public necessities for legislative action to postalize these methods of communication, as they have been in nearly all other countries, are not affected in the least."

The preamble of the resolution recites that the rates for the transmission of messages over electric wires are high; that it is the duty of the government to provide its citizens with the fullest facilities for communication, and that the constitution intend that the postoffice department should have a monopoly of the transmission of all intelligence.

"It is possible to convey both kinds of communication, the telegram and the telephone talk, over the telephone network of the country," says the resolution, which purposes to "vest in the United States a monopoly of the function of communication for hire by electricity, with provisions for:

"The appropriation and transfer of title of the telephone networks, except farmers' lines, to the United States effective Jan. 1, 1915.

"The taking possession by the postmaster general of said networks and their operation as telephone and telegraph lines by the postal department.

"The appraisal thereafter of said properties by the interstate commerce commission, awarding just compensation therefor, with the right of appeal to the circuit court of appeals as to the amounts of the respective awards.

"The payment quarterly to the owners of such telephone properties of 4 per centum per annum upon their value, from Jan. 1, 1915, until payment of the award.

"The appropriation to the owners of such property out of the treasury of the amounts awarded to them.

"The issue by the treasurer from time to time of the 3 per cent bonds of the United States to an amount equal to the aggregate awards for such properties.

"Licenses to existing telegraph and radio companies, their respective business and to such railway agencies for railway purposes."

One of the most beneficial results of the voluntary disintegration of the American Telephone and Telegraph system, in the opinion of the attorney general, will be to broaden the field of operations of the independent companies and eventually to reduce rates and vastly improve the service.

Attorney General McReynolds told friends that scores of the independent telephone companies in the United States were gratified with the agreement made with the department of justice, which would give them the use of thousands of miles of trunk lines operated by the Bell company.

BIBLE SAVES PREACHER'S LIFE

Would-Be Assassin's Bullet Passed Through Book and Struck Skin.

Blairsville, Pa., Dec. 22.—Rev. R. E. McClure, pastor of the United Presbyterian church and president of the Indiana County Anti-Saloon league, owes his escape from death to a Bible carried under his arm.

Returning from a sick call, Dr. McClure was passing a dark spot when he noticed two men, and at the same time heard a whistle. At the signal one of the men fired at the minister.

The bullet struck the Bible, perforating it and passing through Dr. McClure's clothing, struck his skin, without breaking it. Picking up a brick, he hurled it at his assailants, who fled. One of the men lost his hat, which the minister turned over to the police.

Dr. McClure has been unrelenting in his prosecution of liquor law violators and to this it attributed the attempt to murder him.

Woman Declines to Rule.

Gary, Ind., Dec. 22.—This city will not have a woman police head at the present time, as Mrs. Kate Wood Ray declined to accept an appointment tendered her several days ago by Mayor Knotts. Mrs. Ray, who at first had planned to accept control of the fire and police department, said she would not hold office under laws in the making in which she had no part.

Two Girls Die From Gas Fumes.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 22.—Rose Rogow, twelve years old, and Bertha Surowitz, fourteen years old, were asphyxiated by fumes from a gas stove in a room in the home of Isaac Rogow, a brother of one of the victims. The girls were overcome before they could summon aid.

MASONIC BANQUET

Hebron Lodge of New Oxford Holds Annual Event at Abbottstown.

Hebron Lodge No. 465, F. and A. M., of New Oxford, held their annual banquet at the Altland House, Abbottstown, Friday evening. There were about 65 members of the Masonic fraternity present.

Mr. Altland upheld the reputation of his hospitality by providing a most excellent dinner, consisting of oysters in half shell, roast turkey, sweet potatoes, peas, potatoes, salads, beans, fruits, sherbert, ice cream, cake, tea, coffee and cigars.

After the banquet Junior Warden William D. Himes, in a few complimentary remarks, presented Past Master John A. Sheely, of Hanover, who presided as toastmaster.

Responses were made by Rev. L. W. McGarvey, York Springs; A. F. Fix, Red Lion; Dr. McDowell and Henry L. Berry, York; Charles K. Yeager and George W. Baker, of Hebron Lodge; I. M. Stokes and C. F. Moul, of Patnos Lodge, Hanover.

R. A. COLEHOUSE

Prominent Hanover Resident, Fatally Stricken by Paralysis.

R. A. Colehouse, one of Hanover's most prominent citizens, died Saturday at 3:30 p. m., from the effects of a stroke of paralysis sustained Monday night, from which he never rallied.

He was a retired business man, previous to several years ago having been engaged in harness making. He was sixty years old. Last Monday night at 1 o'clock, Mr. Colehouse, who had until that time been in good health, was stricken as he was retiring for the night. He remained in an unconscious condition until death. A daughter, Miss Cora, at home; one brother, William, and a sister, Mrs. George S. Kump, both of Littlestown, survive.

CLERICAL TICKETS

Railroads Decide Privilege will be Good Only for Inter-State Journeys.

The railroads of Pennsylvania have decided to issue clerical orders authorizing sale of tickets in the state at half rates, but only where the ride constitutes part of a continuous journey to a point in another state.

Local clergymen feared that the half rate privilege was to be entirely gone away with.

CANTATA

Large Congregation Witnesses Production in United Brethren Church.

"The Holy One of Israel" was the title of a cantata given in the United Brethren church on Sunday evening. One of the largest audiences that the church has seen gathered for the Christmas celebration.

MR. J. M. Howard opened his new store at Mt. Tabor on Saturday evening. The neighborhood turned out with a calithumpian serenade to greet the new enterprise. The store was well patronized and all joined in wishing Mr. Howard success.—advertisement

CANCER VICTIMS SWAMP HOSPITAL

Seek Radium Treatment at Philadelphia Institution.

Encouraged by Reports of Cures, Patients Have Swamped Resources of the Hospital.

Philadelphia, Dec. 22. — Heartened by the new encouragement held out by high medical authority that cancer may prove curable by radium treatment, men and women in Philadelphia who had all but given up hope of life have been flocking in such numbers to the Oncologic hospital, where radium treatment can be obtained, that the resources of the institution have been swamped.

The three specimens of radium that are available for treatment are used day and night in the institution. Yet the rush of sufferers has grown to such proportions that scores of cases in which the need is slightly less urgent, are now refused immediate treatment and relegated to the rapidly growing "waiting list."

At the same time the work with radium, which has been going on at this institution for seven years, shows the almost incredible power of the element as a healing agent.

Again and again persons who had been given up by eminent specialists as insurable have been restored to the business of common life and scored on the books of the institution with the letters "W. M. E. D." (without manifest evidence of disease).

The hospital is extremely careful about pronouncing a case "cured," but very few of the patients who have been so improved by radium treatment have shown symptoms of a return of the affliction.

The staff of the American Oncologic hospital has worked out its own system of using radium. Special instruments devised by the physicians in charge have been made for the institution and are in use there.

FOUR POISONED BY COFFEE
It is Believed Woman Suffering From Mental Trouble Accidentally Did It.

Baltimore, Dec. 22.—Four persons were poisoned, perhaps fatally, when they drank coffee evidently containing some deadly drug.

The injured persons, who are in St. Joseph's hospital, are:

Mrs. Cecelia Richmond, fifty-five years old.

Michael Richmond, fifty-eight years old, her husband.

Mrs. Bessie Morgenstein, thirty-five years old, daughter of the Richmond.

Stella Morgenstein, seven years old, daughter of Mrs. Morgenstein.

Myer Richmond, a son of the older pair, escaped the poison by appearing late for his breakfast.

The police theory is that Mrs. Richmond, who is said to have been a sufferer from mental trouble of late, accidentally put poison in the coffee. Her condition is so critical that she cannot be questioned.

MOVIES CLOSE A CHURCH

Sunday Night Shows Are Blamed For Vacant Pews.

West Orange, N. J., Dec. 22.—Moving pictures were blamed for the closing of Emmanuel Baptist chapel, West Orange, by the pastor, Rev. Edward E. Lowans.

The minister, who has been a worker in the interests of the county probation office, says he will devote all his attention to this work in the future.

The troubles of the chapel started after the opening of the "movie" theater last summer. The theater kept many from the evening services at the chapel on weekdays, and when the town council permitted Sunday night shows the pews of the chapel were entirely deserted.

Burglars Murder Farmer.

Amsterdam, N. Y., Dec. 22.—John Barrett, a farmer, was murdered, and his daughter, Helen, was knocked unconscious, bound and gagged, in their home near Spraker's Station. Their assailants escaped and so far have eluded searchers who have worked with bloodhounds. Barrett was known to keep some money hidden in the house, and this is believed to have been the motive for the crime.

Hospital Patient Leaps to Death.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 22.—Leaping from the third floor of the Maryland General hospital, after eluding his nurse, Reuben F. Henry, a farmer, of Woodbine, Md., killed himself. Henry, who is thirty-five years old, was admitted to the hospital on Dec. 18, suffering from pneumonia.

U. S. Owns 3776 Reindeer.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Uncle Sam owns 3776 reindeer in Alaska and is constantly increasing their number, according to a report of the interior department. The report says that the total number of reindeer in Alaska was 38,476, distributed among fifty-four herds.

Girl's Body Found in Reservoir.
Baltimore, Md., Dec. 22.—The body of Marjorie Magann, the twenty-two-year-old girl who disappeared from her home last Wednesday night, was found in Clinton Park reservoir.

Tragedy.
A woman's life is bound to be a tragedy, for she can only really love a man she respects and can never wholly respect a man who loves her.
—The Tattler

ARREST GRANDSON IN DEATH MYSTERY

Wanted in Connection With Murder of J. E. Bush.

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 22.—Word was received here of the arrest in Pittsburgh of Edward Smith, wanted in connection with the death of his grandfather, John E. Bush.

The body of the old man was found in his burning house a few miles north of Harrisburg last Thursday night.

There was a bullet hole through his head, and physicians estimated that he had been dead at least twenty-four hours.

Bush kept considerable money in the house, where he lived alone. Police all over the country have been searching for the grandson ever since the murder.

He is a son of Constable Charles E. Smith, of Harrisburg. He was known to have spent some time with his grandfather just before the latter was killed.

Generosity, and Courtesy.

Only the generous man is truly courteous—he gives freely, without a thought of receiving anything in return. The generous man has developed kindness to such an extent that he considers everyone as good as himself —and treats others not as he should like to be treated (for generosity asks nothing), but as he ought to be treated.—Drew's Imprint.

Medical Advertising. COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Thickness and Lustre at Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy", thus avoiding a lot of muss. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.
